Re: Vancouver Island Woodworkers' Guild Recognition List

Dear Phil;

The Executive Committee of the Vancouver Island Woodworkers' Guild has established a "Recognition List" where Guild Members that make an extraordinary contribution to the Guild are recognized. To be placed on this list a member must be nominated by an Executive Committee member and receive unanimous support from the Committee.

It is with great pleasure that we are adding your name to this list. Your contributions to the Guild are too many and varied to mention here in detail. However, your many years with the Wood Recovery Program directing the all-important wood sales, the Guild Wood Shows, associated media coverage and public awareness campaigns have been outstanding in giving the Guild a real presence in the community. This Guild visibility and credibility have also been significantly enhanced through your work with Camosun Fine Furniture Program and Lee Valley Tools. Recently, your initiative to bring woodworking masters to the Guild has been deeply appreciated.

You are a Guild member that recognizes what needs to be done and then gets it done! Once again, congratulations on becoming a member of the Guild Recognition List.

Sincerely yours,

Neil Bosdet
President, Vancouver Island Woodworkers' Guild
